JOURNAL POLICY

The Abraka Journal of Humanities, Law, & Social Sciences is a multidisciplinary journal that is published biannually by the Faculty of Arts, Delta State University, Abraka, Nigeria. The journal publishes original, well-researched, and data-driven papers that undergo rigorous double-blind peer review. The academic papers cover a wide range of topics in the fields of Arts and Humanities, Law, and Social Sciences.

The journal's articles encompass a diverse range of disciplines, highlighting its interdisciplinary approach to research and scholarship on the African Continent and worldwide. The journal establishes the connection between research in the Arts, Humanities, Social Sciences, Law, and development on the African continent..

Manuscripts must be written in either English or French and should not exceed six thousand words with an abstract of approximately two hundred words. The manuscripts, written in English or French, should not be under consideration for publication elsewhere. Manuscripts (MS Word) should be submitted to abakahls@gmail.com as attachment.

References should be presented in the editor's preferred style sheet,(MLA or APA). All editorial correspondences should be directed to Prof. M. Mowarin, the Managing Editor (+2348039381506).

EDITORIAL NOTE

The Abraka Journal of Humanities, Law, and Social Sciences is published by the Faculty of Arts, Delta State University, Abraka, Delta State, Nigeria. All the papers published in the journal are well researched, original and data driven. All the papers in this volume have undergone rigorous double-blind peer review.

The papers in Vol. 1, No 1, 2024 of the Abraka Journal of Humanities, Law, and Social Sciences cut across all disciplines of the Humanities and the Social Sciences. Some of the articles in this volume are interdisciplinary in terms of scope and this approach underscores the modern trend of scholarship and research. The contributors of the articles are researchers from reputable universities in Nigeria. We believe that the articles will be of immense interest to researchers and students.
